ICOM Committee for Conservation session at ICOM General Conference, Rio de Janeiro
Wednesday August 14, 2013

9:00–9:20 welcome and introduction, Lisa Pilosi, Chair, ICOM-CC

9:20–9:40 Keynote: “The Role of the Federal Attorney’s Office in the Protection of the Cultural Heritage in Brazil”, Zani Cajueiro Tobias de Souza (Federal Attorney’s Office, Minas Gerais, Brazil)

  session chair: Vinod Daniel, Vice-Chair, ICOM-CC

9:40–10:00 “Making the Case for Conservation: A Tale of Two Languages”, James Janowski (United States)

10:00-10:20 “People, Passion, Proficiency: The Cebu Provincial Government’s Investments in Heritage Conservation in Cebu, Central Philippines”, J. Eleazar R. Bersales (Philippines)

  session chair: Kristiane Strætkvern, ICOM-CC Directory Board member

10:40–11:00 “What Effect Does the Conservation of Heritage Have on Society at Large?”, Martha Richter (United Kingdom)

11:00–11:20 “Conservation Ripples”, Michel v. Roggenbucke, Maria Mertzani, Christina Desalermou, and Anastasia Katsidima (Greece)

11:20–11:40 “Professional Networking and Creative Conservation in the Historic City of Taiwan”, Mei-Fang Kuo and Shiann-Far Kung (Taiwan)

11:40-12:00 discussion

lunch

  session chair: Johanna Maria Theile, ICOM-CC Directory Board member

13:30-13:50 “Conservation through Communication of Public Art”, Ingrid Grytdal Matheson and Christina Spaarschu (Norway)

13:50-14:10 “Building Preservation in a Political Institution”, Juçara Farias and Gilcy Rodrigues Marques (Brazil)

14:10–14:30 “A New Egyptian Museum: Its Role and Activity in the Africa and Middle East Region”, Yasunori Matsuda, Kaoru Suemori, Hussein Bassir, Hussein Kama, Mohamed Atwa, Said Shebl, Osama Abo el Khair, and Vinod Daniel (Egypt and Australia)

14:30-14:50 discussion

  session chair: Vinod Daniel, Vice-Chair, ICOM-CC

14:50–15:30 open forum on environmental standards in museums globally